UVOD

Poštovani prijatelji,

Kada se osvrnemo na poslednje dve godine rada naše male zajednice, pomislimo na brojne izazove koje su pred nama postavili, ko drugi, do naša braća po veri i poreklu.

Ipak, ovaj kratki pregled naših aktivnosti započaćemo jednim važnim priznanjem koji je Srbija učinila jevrejskoj zajednici u Zemunu, posebno državi Izrael. Kroz sva naša izdanja vezana za istoriju Jevrejske opštine Zemun pokušavali smo da od zaborava spasimo činjenicu da su u Zemunu rođeni i živeli direktni preci Teodora Hercla, njegov otac Jakov, deda Simon i baba Regina. Začetnici ideje da se jedna od ulica u Zemunu nazove po Herclu bili su bivša ambasadorka Izraela u Srbiji Jafa Ben Ari i Nenad Fogel. Posle 15 godina, na predlog Jevrejskih opština Zemun i Beograd uz podršku aktuelne ambasadorke Alone Fišer Kam, ulica, stotinak metara udaljena od rodne kuće porodice Hercl, imenovana je po ocu savremene države Izrael Teodoru Herclu. Ceremoniji imenovanja ulice prisustvovali su predsednici Srbije Aleksandar Vučić i Izraela Ruven Rivlin.

Imenovanje ulice po Teodoru Herclu samo je nastavak politike naše države Srbije, koja čini sve da se mala jevrejska zajednica u Srbiji ne ugasi. Srbija je prva i jedina u Evropi donela poseban zakon kojim se bar delimično otklanjavaju teške posledice Holokausta. Taman kada smo pomislili da će nas to rešiti svih briga, bar onih finansijskih, na delo su stupili mešetari, koji su se ugurali u sam vrh Saveza jevrejskih opština Srbije i naneli ogromnu štetu našem ugledu. Umesto da svi zajedno uživamo u sigurnosti koju nam je obezbedio Zakon, došlo je do velikih zloupotreba koje su nam priedili čelnici Saveza na čelu sa nelegalnim predsednikom Robertom Sabadošem. Tokom 2017. godine to je najviše na „svojoj koži“ osetila Jevrejska opština Zemun. Umesto da imamo ravnopravni status, ostale članice Saveza, izuzev Beograda, Prištine i Kikinde, protivzakonito su nas isključile iz raspodele budžetskih sredstava koje država Srbija izdvaja za sve opštine. Svesni njihovih namera da ugase sve naše aktivnosti, nismo klonuli duhom, već smo sa još više žara pristupili realizaciji naših planova i projekata.

Jedna od najvažnijih aktivnosti je saradnja sa našim okruženjem u regionu. Ponovo smo bili prisutni na susretu DOR koji organizuje Židovska općina Zagreb, i to u dva navrata u Čatežu i Tuhejljskim toplicama. Susret Mahar postao je tradicionalno okupljanje Jevreja iz celog sveta, pa tako nije moglo da prođe ni bez našeg prisustva 2016. i 2017. Uspesnu saradnju nastavili smo i na lokalnom nivou. Bili smo gosti Romske zajednice u Zemunu povodom Dana Roma, gostovali smo u Senti, Kikindi, Zrenjaninu, Ilok... .

Ipak kruna svih susreta bila je konferencija žena „Sledeći korak“, koju smo organizovali u Zemunu i kojoj su prisustvovale ženske sekcije skoro svih opština iz Srbije i jevrejskih zajednica iz Makedonije, Hrvatske, Bosne i Hercegovine i Crne Gore.

Komemorativnim skupovima (2017. i 2018.) pored spomenika Žrtvama Holokausta na jevrejskom groblju u Zemunu obeležili smo godišnjice odvođenja većine Jevreja Zemuna (1942.) u kompleks logora Jasenovac, gde su mučki ubijeni.

Koliko nam znače obeležavanja naših verskih praznika najbolje govori broj prisutnih članova i gostiju. Svaki novi praznik bio je povod da se okupimo u velikom broju i potvrdimo naše zajedništvo.

Sramni pamfleti koje je Robert Sabadoš slao na privatne adrese naših članova, sa namerom da nas razjedini, samo nas je učvrstilo u uverenju da istrajemo u borbi za zajedništvo celokupne jevrejske zajednice Srbije i za poštovanje Zakona o otklanjanju posledica Holokausta. Tokom 2018. našim naporima su se pridružile jevrejske opštine Beograda, Kikinde i Prištine, koje čine više od 70% članstva jevrejske zajednice Srbije. Održana je izborna skupština u Savezu i sada očekujemo od države Srbije da potvrdi izbor novog rukovodstva.

Dok se to ne desi mi i dalje sledimo naš jedini put, put sloge i zajedništva.

O našim aktivnostima možete se detaljnije informisati na našem sajtu www.joz.rs

INTRODUCTION

Dear friends,

When we look back on the previous two years of our small community's activity, we think of the whole multitude of challenges which were placed before us by no other than our brothers in faith and origin.

However, this brief review of our activities will commence by the important recognition made by Serbia to our Jewish Community in Zemun, even more so to the State of Israel. In each and every one of our editions concerning the history of the Jewish Community in Zemun, we have endeavored to stress and preserve from oblivion the fact that the direct predecessors of Theodore Herzl were born and lived in Zemun; his father Jacob, grandfather Simon and grandmother Regina. The initiators of the idea that one street in Zemun should bear Herzl's name were the former Ambassador to Serbia, Mr. Jaffa Ben Ari, and Mr. Nenad Fogel. After 15 years, at the suggestion of the Jewish Communities in Zemun and Belgrade and backed by the present Ambassador Ms. Alona Fischer Kamm, a street, a hundred meters from the home of the Herzl family, was named after the father of the modern State of Israel, Theodore Herzl. Present at the ceremony of the street naming were Presidents of Serbia, Mr. Aleksandar Vučić, and the State of Israel, Mr. Reuven Rivlin.

The naming of the street after Theodore Herzl was only the continuation of the politics of our Serbian state to make every effort to keep our own small Jewish Community from fading out. Serbia was the first and only country in Europe to bring a special law by which the grave effects of the Holocaust are to some extent put to right. And just as we thought that we were finding solutions to our problems, at least those relevant to finance, we were accosted by usurers who managed to reach right up to the peak of the Jewish Communities in Serbia Federation and caused great damage to its image. Instead of jointly enjoying the safety which was provided to us by the law, we were immersed in an abundance of wrong doings, which were initiated and carried out by the leading men of the Federation, headed by the unlawfully elected president Robert Sabadoš. During 2017 the Jewish Community in Zemun was the one to feel the brunt of these activities. Instead of enjoying an equal status to all the other members of the Federation, the entire membership, excluding that of Belgrade, Pristina and Kikinda, unlawfully kept us out of the distribution of budget proceeds, funds provided by the state of Serbia for all Communities alike. Aware of their intentions to shut down all our activities, we stayed strong and unbending in our designs and projects. Their behavior gave us strength to persevere and bring to life all our plans and projects regardless of their ruinous efforts.

One of the most important activities is our cooperation with our neighboring friends within the greater region. Once again we were present at DOR meeting organized by the Jewish Community in Zagreb, and that on both occasions in the Čatež and Tuhelj spa centres. The Mahar gathering has become a traditional gathering for Jews from the world over, so that we could not absent ourselves from the meetings, both in 2016 and 2017. We have maintained an equally successful cooperation within our local surroundings. We were guests of the Roma Community in Zemun on the Day of the Roma; we were guests also at Senta, Kikinda, Zrenjanin, Ilok...

However, the crown of all these gatherings was the women's conference "The Next Step", which we organized in Zemun and at which almost all women's sections from Communities all over Serbia, as well as from Jewish Communities in Macedonia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Montenegro were present.

The commemoration gatherings (2017 and 2018) at the Memorial to the Victims of the Holocaust at the Jewish Cemetery in Zemun were held in remembrance of the deportation of the majority of Zemun Jews (1942) to the camps of Jasenovac, where they were mercilessly murdered.

Just how much observation and remembrance of our religious holidays is important to us, is best spoken for by the number of guests and members present. Each holiday in a row, was an occasion to gather in numbers which best speak of and confirm our unity.

The notorious pamphlets which Robert Sabadoš sent to the private addresses of our members, with the aim to make a breach in our Community, only strengthened our belief in our battle for preserving the unity of all the Jewish Communities in Serbia and respecting the Law on diminishing the effects of the Holocaust. During 2018 our efforts gained the support of the Jewish Communities in Belgrade, Kikinda and Priština, which together amount to more than 70% of the entire membership of the Jewish Community in Serbia. The Federation Election Assembly was held and now we expect the state of Serbia to confirm the newly elected leadership.

Until this happens we stand firmly on the one and only path possible, that of accord and unanimity.
